ELEMENTi

The Elementi X-Cite shower is innovative in its design, featuring a ring-shaped configuration that adds a touch of playfulness, while delivering serious performance.

X-Cite showering technology creates X-shaped blades of water that deliver an expanding spray and improved water volume, while still making efficient use of water consumption.

FEATURES:

A conventional shower has multi-directional streams with limited concentration of water spray. The X-Cite shower supplies a more voluminous water delivery, resulting in greater coverage and superior showering experience.
