Cotto Sensation Round Vessel Basin (405 x 405 x 168mm) brings a stylish, super-thin design to your bathroom, creating a show-stopping centrepiece that instantly refreshes your room. This basin, available in an array of colours, is just as much an artistic statement piece as a functional essential, and its clean lines ensure it's an equally excellent option for any modern or traditional bathroom.

Crafted using CottoCeram™ high-technology clay, the basin features a durable, anti-crazing finish that is compatible with warm and cold water. The ceramic surface retains its smooth, new look over the years, making it a long-lasting and functional choice for the bathroom.

For an additional convenience factor, the Ultra Clean+ gloss finish (available in gloss white) boasts a revolutionary compound developed by Cotto's research team. The technology reduces germs, compacts the ceramic surface, and seals any imperfections, with a self-reduction rate of 99% over 24 hours. This results in the basin not only looking great but also being hygienic to a high level.

The Sensation Round Vessel Basin is hand-finished with precision by experienced craftsmen. It comes with a 10-year guarantee, providing peace of mind and assurance of its performance and longevity. At a weight of only 6.85kg, this basin is light for simple installation without sacrificing its elegant, high-end appearance.

Add a touch of creativity and functionality to your bathroom with the Cotto Sensation Round Vessel Basin, where fashion meets cutting-edge technology for a better experience.
