The Parisi Isola Stonetec Freestanding Bath (1600x760x550mm) is a beautiful combination of modern design and superb functionality that will be the highlight of any bathroom. It is constructed of Stonetec, a groundbreaking, environmentally friendly material consisting of natural minerals and pure polyester resin. The bath is cast in one mold only, giving it a silky, non-porous finish that keeps bacteria and stains at bay. This is very easy to clean, perfect for busy households or business settings.

With its generous 292-liter capacity, the Isola Freestanding Bath features a spacious space for a cozy soak. Its sleek design is ideal for both home and light commercial use, including hotel bathrooms, motel bathrooms, and retirement village bathrooms. The bath features an under-bath cavity, eliminating the need to make floor cuts to accommodate the waste, achieving a clean and neat installation.

Available in a selection of finishes to suit any style of bathroom interior, the Isola Freestanding Bath has a 25-year guarantee backing it for complete quality and peace of mind. Its streamlined, sophisticated lines are the perfect complement to traditional bathrooms with contemporary fittings, perfectly harmonizing with your decor. Complete with free matching waste and without overflow, the Isola bath is the very essence of luxury functionality.
